

Scrapbooks

- Memories: Memories in scrapbooking are preserved moments captured through photos, mementos, and written anecdotes to create lasting keepsakes.
- Albums: Albums in scrapbooking are books or binders containing pages for organizing and displaying photos, mementos, and other memories creatively.
- Embellishments: Embellishments in scrapbooking refer to decorative elements such as stickers, ribbons, buttons, and charms used to enhance the overall design.
- Journaling: Journaling in scrapbooking refers to the act of writing personal stories, thoughts, or memories to accompany photos and embellishments.
- Die Cuts: Die cuts are pre-cut shapes and designs that can be used in scrapbooking to add dimension and detail to pages.
- Stickers: Stickers are adhesive decorations used in scrapbooking to add colorful images and designs to pages, enhancing the overall aesthetic.
- Paper Crafting: Paper crafting in the context of scrapbooking refers to the art of creating decorative elements and layouts using paper materials.
- Scrapbooking: Scrapbooking is the art of preserving and creatively arranging photos, memorabilia, and decorations in a personalized album or scrapbook.

Gathering materials

- Journaling Cards: Journaling cards are small decorative cards used in scrapbooking to write personal notes, thoughts, or captions for photos.
- Photos: Photos are printed images used in scrapbooking to capture memories and moments, adding a personal touch to the project.
- Stickers: Stickers are decorative adhesive labels used in scrapbooking to add color, texture, and design elements to pages and projects.
- Patterned Paper: Patterned paper is decorative paper with various designs, colors, and textures. It is commonly used in scrapbooking to add visual interest.
- Embellishments: Embellishments are decorative items added to scrapbook layouts such as stickers, ribbons, buttons, and other embellishments to enhance the design.
- Adhesive: Adhesive refers to a substance used in scrapbooking to stick materials together, such as glue, tape, or stickers.
- Die Cuts: Die cuts are pre-cut shapes made from paper or cardstock used in scrapbooking to add decorative elements to layouts.

Designing layout

- Composition: Composition in scrapbooking refers to the arrangement and placement of elements such as photos, embellishments, and text on a page.
- Hierarchy: Hierarchy in scrapbooking layout design refers to the organization of elements based on importance, creating a visually pleasing composition.
- Alignment: Alignment in scrapbooking refers to the arrangement of elements in a layout to create a cohesive and visually pleasing design.
- Patterned Paper: Patterned paper in scrapbooking refers to decorative paper with various designs and colors used to enhance the overall layout.
- Layering: Layering in scrapbooking refers to the technique of stacking different elements like paper, photos, and embellishments to create depth.
- Theme: The theme in scrapbooking layout design refers to the central idea or concept that ties all elements together harmoniously.
- Collage: Collage in designing layout for scrapbooking refers to arranging and layering various materials such as photos, paper, and embellishments.

Adding embellishments

- Embellishments: Embellishments are decorative elements such as stickers, ribbons, or buttons that are added to enhance the overall design.
- Stickers: Stickers are adhesive embellishments used in scrapbooking to add decorative elements such as images, designs, and text to pages.
- Die Cuts: Die cuts are pre-cut shapes or designs made from various materials like paper or fabric and used as decorations in scrapbooking.
- Ribbons: Ribbons are decorative strips of fabric used in scrapbooking to add texture, color, and dimension to layouts and projects.
- Washi Tape: Washi tape is a decorative adhesive tape made from traditional Japanese paper, used to add colorful accents in scrapbooking.
- Sequins: Sequins are small, shiny, decorative embellishments commonly used in scrapbooking to add texture, sparkle, and dimension to projects.
- Brads: Brads are decorative metal embellishments used in scrapbooking to add texture and interest to layouts and projects.